Who is the organizer? You will meet me soon, but for the time being, I am Nanor, Lebanese-Armenian, B.A. in Education with emphasis English and minor in Psychology.

When will it take place? Every Tuesday from 13:50-15:00.

And where? At the Intellectual Club.

How long? The club will be active for about 7 weeks = 7 gatherings

What is the aim of the club? The purpose of this club is to target constructive debating skills, some of which are:

- Researching from credible sources.
- Clear articulation of opinions.
- Logical support of arguments.
- Constructive arguments based on previous statements.
- Unbiased representation of ideas.
- Objective and impersonal use of language.
- Democratic dialogues.
- Empathy towards opposing point of view.

What topics will be discussed? Topics will be chosen based on student suggestions and preferences of controversial topics.

What is expected of students?

- Researching on relevant topic before meeting.
- Active participation during debates.
- A positive and open-minded attitude.

After each debate, a feedback and reflection session will be held.

Hope to meet you soon!

Announcement

Dear students, this announcement wishes to bring forth to your attention the formation of a:

Debate Club

Whereby intriguing and controversial issues will be discussed in English targeting the improvement of constructive debating skills (← see on the left).

The club is organized by Ms. Nanor Stamboulian (←)

In case of questions, refer to the information on the left.

Due to the interactive nature of the club, limited number of slots for participants will be offered; students from any faculty who are willing to participate are kindly asked to record their names below.

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.
11.
12.
13.
14.

First meeting will take place this following Tuesday: March 5, 2019.